WASHINGTON, D. C., DEC. 3, 1885

THE NEW MARSHAL In the appointment of Mr. Albert A Wilson, to be United States Marshal for the District of Columbia, Mr. Cleve land has made a selection to which no exception can be taken, politically, personally or otherwise. There were those who had become impatient at long waiting for the change, but it was worth a long wait to realize such an excellent and acceptable change. In making the appointment, the President has clearly shown that he is not only in sympathy with the generally expressed desire of the District that the men who hold the local office should be men who have local inter ests here, but with the political feel ing also that in the distribution of Dis trict patronage fair recognition should be paid to those who have labored zealously and contributed liberally, these many years, to the Democratic

Mr. Wilson, as a citizen, prominent In business circles, identified from his youth up with the growth and progress of the National Capital and of unquestioned rectitude of character, I fully entitled to the congratulation which he is receiving on every hand for the honorable distinction that has been conferred upon him. In this regard it is an essentially popular selection.

Looking at the appointment from a political standpoint it cannot fall to be equally satisfactory to the District De mocracy. Mr. Wilson has always been an active and influential member of the Democratic party, and untiring in his efforts to promote its success, though in no sense a mercenary or spotls-hunt ing partisan. In politics as in business he has invariably occupied an advanced and honorable position, alike creditable to himself and the great organization which he has so faithfully represented.

That he will perform the duties o his office ably and energetically goes without saying. That he is to be relieved from the social responsibilities at the White House hitherto devolved upon the Marshal, will no doubt be as agreeable to Mr. Wilson as it is evidence of the good sense of the President in doing away with this incongruous association.

OUR LOCAL AND FOREIGN INSUR-ANCE COMPANIES.

There are many ways in which the citizens of Washington can advance the matter of fire insurance. Every one can readily realize upon a moment's is retained in circulation here the better it is for all business interests. Yes many of our citizens insure their prop erty against loss by fire in foreign con panies doing business at the Capital through agents, and thus sand thou sands of dollars out of the city that ought to remain here. Owing to the unusual width of our streets and the well-known efficiency of our Fire Department, a wide-spread conflagration is very unlikely, if not impossible, and it is a tempting field for foreign companies. Our local in stitutions are known to be strong They are managed by well-known citl zens, interested in the welfare of the city, and, in case of an honest loss, payment is made promptly and without trouble. Whereas, in case of foreign companies, both the managers of the companies and the insured are strangers to each other, and the honest owner of property destroyed or damaged by fire stands on the same plane with the dis honest owner, who may have attempted a fraud on the company In case of loss the holder of a policy of a foreign company has his eyes such denly opened to the fact that he is more or less at the mercy of the company, and in many instances compro mises are made which would not other wise be submitted to. If the company should no longer have an agent here before whom process can be served, the unfortunate policy holder cannot sue here where he and his witnesses re side, but must resort to a foreign jurisdiction with unknown delays and expense. In many cases he is uncertain whether a judgment, if he had one. would be good or worthless. If the company should have an agent in Washington he is necessarily told by his attorney that if he brings suit and recovers a judgment and the company should still refuse to pay, he would have to again sue the company in the State where it is chartered on the judgment of our local court. Rather than undergo such delays and expense the policy holder feels almost forced to accept whatever amount the company in forms him it is willing to pay. There are of course foreign com panies doing business here which ad just losses on an equitable and honest basis, but we are endeavoring to show the insuring community in what position they may be placed and the great

The report of the Chief Engineer of the Ffre Department shows that the losses by fire in this District for the six years from 1879 to 1884 inclusive averaged $82,900 per annum. The losse for the year ending June 30, 1885, amounted to $240,300, and it is estimated that the losses for the year ending June 30, 1886, will equal, if not exceed, that amount

There are twelve local companies in this District, including the two Mutual companies, of unquestioned soundness,

WASHINGTON CRITIC and about eighty foreign companies doing business through local agents The total annual payments for preniums will amount to about $330,000 of which the local companies receive bout 54 per cent. These figures show that through the short-sightedness of our citizens about $150,000 from thi the source is annually sent out of the District, which ought to be retained at home. Our local companies do no foreign business, and they are able and > the District. There is also gross inequality in the taxation of local and foreign companie under existing law which in some way ought to be remedied. The local companies have to pay a license fee of fifts cents on each $1,000 of capital investort and the personal tax of one and one half per centum on the value of their capital stock. Foreign companies doing business publicly through agents are only required to pay a license fee of $15 and a semi-annual tax of one per centum on gross receipts. The conquence of this is that the local compa nies doing about the same amount of business as the foreign companies, pay to the District Government a tax for this privilege about four times as great as is paid by the foreign companies. Looking at this question from the sole standpoint of the welfare of the District, we trust that all good citizens will reflect upon the matter and place their premiums for insurance with the home companies, and thus promote their own interests by increasing the general welfare.

THAT picturesque monarch, young Theebaw of Burmab, has surrendered himself to the British forces. He surrendered his army, which, by the way he did not lead in person, as he boasted he would, and his kingdom first, but did not give himself up until his palace had been surrounded. The British are going to deal with him as they did with the deposed Egyptian Khedive, Ismail Pasha, who lives in luxury on the Riviera. Theebaw can select any city in India where he would like to drink out the rest of his days, and England will give him as many palaces and as choice and varied a selection of wives as his royal bent may incline him to His rum and tobacco will also be on the ad libitum plan. About the only de privation that he will be called upon to suffer will be the constication of his rare and effective collection of guillotines; he cannot therefore butcher couple of relatives to give zest to his matutinal cocktail or add a few gory heads to the adornments of his side board that his dinner may go off with eclat. While Theebaw is no longer the 'Boss'' of Burmah, there is no doubt

King Cole" kind of a racket. Turkey, which naturally should ave been the first to enter upon hostilities, because of the union of Bulgaria and Eastern Roumella, has stepped in after Bulgaria has whipped Servia, none of whose fight it was, by the way. Turkish troops have entered Roumella, and the Porte has given no tice to the powers represented in the Balkan conference that Turkey intends to enter upon military activity in Roumelia, the ultimate object being, it is supposed, the occupation of the Balkans. Turkey fears that Russia their interests, and one of them is in may absorb Bulgaria, and Austria do the same with Servia; and from the manner in which those two powers are reflection that the more money there skirmishing that fear seems to be well grounded would, the Liberals are picking up it county elections. The Tories had their innings in the buroughs; these seem to be the days for the Liberals. There is now a certainty that the latter will have a good majority over the Conservatives and a probability that they will have a working majority over both the Tories and Nationalists. Up to this noon the returns showed that 252 Liberals, 203 Tories and 46 Nationalists or Parnellites had been elected. Mr. Gladston is by no means downed and Mr. Parnell is not yet assured that his ambition to make the Nationalists the balance of power in the next House of Commons will be realized.

THE aggregate clearings of twentyeven leading cities last week showed an increase over the corresponding week last year of 51 per cent. Outside of New York the increase was 24 per cent. Its a long lane that has no turning. If a movement like this continies, business men may begin to take

MR. Wilson will be relieved of the ocial duties that have heretofore at tached to the U. S. Marshal's Office. The bob-tailed coat and tube roses and snow drops, that were wont to adorn this functionary, will now give way to a business suit with no flowers.

WILLIAM LEHMAN BARTLETT, the young man who married the rich old Baron hereby had his name changed to Burdett-Courts-Bartlett, is member of Parliament elect from Westminster, and brother to Ellis Ashmead Bartlett, the member from Sheffield. They are of good American stock—the Bartlett pair variety, as it wereand appear to have done well by their transplanting.

We have counted only one hundred of our exchanges which have referred to the discovery of natural gas in this city, but of that number ninety-four have made connecting reference to the meeting of Congress. The "funny" men of the press are fairly booming. They are getting almost as humorous as Mark Twain, taking the latter's "War" article in the last century as a

Probably Correct.
In front of one of the blacksmith shops at Green Cove, Fig., a young negro was try-ing to extract a nail from the hind hoof of an able-bodied and vicious-looking mule. An aged colored man came along, watched the operation for a moment, and then observed: "Guess you go to heaven if dat mule kick you once." "Rockon not," was the reply. "What den?" asked the old man. "Cl'ar beyond."

From the National Republican:

"The beauty, intelligence and fashion of Washington were splendidly represented at Herzog's, forming a crewded andience for the "Mikado." Delight was universal, applause tremendous, and many were the encores. How could affairs have been otherwise with such an appreciative assemblage and so capable a representation as that of the National ideal Opera Company? Nankl Poo-Mr. Gerard Coventry-bore well his character throughout, and was in excellent volce. If & Ko-Mr. J. It. Oakley—could not have been better rendered, Yim Yum-Miss Agnet Earle-was heantiful and charming. The entire operatindeed, was admirably rendered, and liberal praise given to every participant. Scenery, settings, and wardrobes were surpassingly rich." HAVING Moved to Fat, No. 1321, we HAVING Moved to F st, No. 1321, we have feedy to show to our customers some very fine pieces of property, improved and unimproved, both for homes or investment.
